ADAGIO Project – 15 postdoctoral positions in the field of Advanced Manufacturing

ADAGIO is an international fellowship programme aiming at attracting talented post-doctoral researchers to develop their 3-year projects in the field of Advanced Manufacturing

Within ADAGIO project, there are 7 host research groups at POLYMAT:

1. Polymerization Processes Group – José María Asua (jm.asua@ehu.eus)
2. Polyzymes – Ana Beloqui (ana.beloqui@ehu.eus)
3. Responsive Polymers for Therapeutics – Marcelo Calderón (marcelo.calderon@polymat.eu)
4. Advanced Multiphasic Polymers Group – Alejandro J. Müller (alejandrojesus.muller@ehu.es)
5. Science and Engineering of Polymeric Biomaterials \(ZIBIO\) – José Ramón Sarasua (jr.sarasua@ehu.es)
6. Nanobioseparations Group - Thomas Schäfer (thomas.schafer@ehu.eus)
7. Catalysis and Sustainable Polymers Group – Haritz Sardon (haritz.sardon@ehu.eus) and Sandra Camarero (Sandra.camarero@polymat.eu)

Candidates must comply with the MSCA mobility rule: “not have resided or carried out their main activity (work, studies, etc.) in the country of the recruiting institution (either France or Spain, as selected) for more than 12 months in the 3 years immediately prior to the date of the call deadline”.

All the information regarding the project (eligibility criteria, employment conditions, application process...) is fully detailed in the website <https://www.ehu.eus/web/cofund-adagio>

Candidates meeting the eligibility criteria and interested in applying, please send the CV to the email address of the research group leader he/she would like to apply with (see above), stating your interest in applying to the COFUND project ADAGIO. Deadline for applications of interest submission is March 21, 2022.

POLYMAT has obtained the ‘HR Excellence in Research award’. The award reflects our commitment to continuously improve our human resource policies in line with the European Charter for Researchers, the Code of Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers and our commitment to achieve fair and transparent recruitment and appraisal procedures.
